Teachers' Review

Time: August 28, 1948

Place: Sports Arena, Toledo, Ohio

Event: Today is an all day teachers' meeting preparatory to the opening of school, September 8th. For this occasion is planned for the a. m. a business meeting, of which Miss Harrison, our Commercial teacher, will read the minutes of the last meeting and record those of this meeting; and for the p. m. the teachers have planned a program for the benefit of the public. Since our superintendent, Mr. Thompson, and History teacher, Mr. Palmer, happen to be in charge we see many Pembervillians. Won't you join us?

Mr. Thompson: Good afternoon, folks. We the teachers of Wood County sincerely wish you a hearty welcome to the "Teachers Review." I know you are all anxious to see this program so sit back, relax, and on with the program! Mr. Announcer—

Announcer: As our characters come on the stage, I will introduce them. Our first group are those from Pemberville.

At this point a tall, well groomed lady comes on the stage. She has a white jacket with many little pockets in it over her dress. In these pockets is a tape measure, scissors, marking chalk, and packs of needles. Yes, this is the Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Baker. She is fitting a pattern on Mrs. Russell, the Mathematics instructor, well liked by everyone. Mrs. Russell is in charge of all high school Math and is the Sophomore sponsor. They seem to be discussing a book they are reading, when who should appear but Mrs. Cornell, who is interested in all types of Literature. She is the High School English teacher and also is the senior sponsor. She has read the book and is explaining the mysterious plot of the story when a jolly, little, man comes skipping on the stage with a violin case in one hand and many workbooks in the other. It is our Music teacher, Mr. Kingsbury. He is teaching 8th English, Public Speaking, and all Music. At this time, everything disappears and out of a cloud of smoke comes Mr. Heckman, who is instructing the Science classes and also is the Freshman sponsor. He is discussing the atomic bomb with Mr. Thompson, the American Government teacher, and Mr. Palmer, who is the 7th sponsor, English teacher, and History teacher, as well as the boys Jr. High Phys. Ed. coach. Mr. Palmer changes the subject to the basketball games which his Jr. High team have played when Mr. Madaras, our high school coach, appears. Mr. Madaras is also the instructor of Manual Training and Mechanical Drawing for the high school boys.

A brief intermission is observed.

Mr. Announcer: The stage is now being transformed into an elementary atmosphere. As the curtain is pulled an alert little lady is printing first grade spelling words on the blackboard. Need we say, this is Mrs. Bailey, who has started many youngsters off with an open mind and eager to learn more. A few feet to the right of Mrs. Bailey's blackboard is a lady tacking paper figures on a bulletin board. She is amid a large group of gay little second graders. It is Mrs. Bruning.

The scene changes and now appear three lines of enthusiastic children with their instructors. What is it; a spelling bee? No, it seems they are having a multiplication quiz. Miss Fahle, Mrs. Rhoades, and Miss Gockerman, the fifth, fourth and third grade teachers are conducting this quiz. Evidently the fifth grade pupils have won the quiz because they are filing into the sixth grade classroom where their arrival is awaited by Miss Bruning and anxious students. And now the fallen curtain engulfs another year of understanding.

Senior Class History

On September fourth of nineteen forty-five the Freshman class entered high school with an enrollment of thirty-seven students. Filled with ambition and enthusiasm, the majority of our class settled down to overcoming the obstacles which the high school course of study offers to its freshman students.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Heckman we started our first year in high school. Our class welcomed five new students: Martna Ernsthausen, Tom Bockbrader, Lloyd Peters, and Pauline Davidson from New Rochester, and Miriam Hecker from Cleveland.

A class party was held in the school cafeteria in September. We also had a Hallowe'en party in Hartman's barn. The class had a lot of fun at both parties.

During the year we elected the following as class officers:

President—Daniel Sander
Vice President — Dorothy Samson
Secretary — Heber Howard
Treasurer — Scott McCreary

We started our Sophomore Class with thirty-two students. We were very sorry to lose five members of our class, but were very glad to gain two new members in January. They were Betty and Bonnie Musser.

We had Mrs. Russell to guide us through our school year. We all missed Mrs. Russell when she was ill during the winter. At that time we had Mrs. Rainy and Mrs. Shultz to take Mrs. Russell's place.

The big event of this year was the picking of our class rings, and the hayride which followed.

We were all proud to have some of our boys on the basketball and baseball teams again.

During the year we elected these officers:
 President — Scott McCreary
 Vice President — Duane Patterson
 Secretary — Donald Cobb
 Treasurer — John Dirksen
 Reporter — Joyce Ballard
 Ath. Ass. Rep. — George Riehm

We started our Junior year with thirty-three students, but we had the misfortune to lose Don Cobb in the middle of the year.

We again had Mrs. Russell as our class sponsor.

One of the big events of this year was our Junior Play, "Wanted, A Hero," given November seventh, under the guidance of Mrs. Cornell and Mrs. Russell.

We had the privilege of serving two banquets during the year to make money for our class trip that we are planning to take at commencement time.

We again were proud to have some of our boys on the basketball and baseball teams. We were also very proud of Jewell Lawson, Delores Hagemeyer and Dorothy Samson, who were cheerleaders.

The biggest event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom. After much planning and a lot of work, everything came out beautifully. The Huber Brothers orchestra played all the music needed for everyone to have an enjoyable time.

President — Daniel Sander
Vice President — Heber Howard
Secretary — Milly Hartman
Treasurer — Duane Patterson
Reporter — Joyce Ballard

At last the year has come that we have been waiting for so long. We are seniors now, all twenty-eight of us.

We elected the following as class officers:
President — Daniel Sander
Vice President — Heber Howard
Secretary — Joyce Ballard
Treasurer — Duane Patterson
Reporter — Dolores Hagemeyer

The first event of the year was the photographing of our class at "Marchion Studio."

Again several of our boys were on the baseball and basketball teams.

The Junior-Senior Prom was lovely and enjoyed by all. It will always linger in our memories.

To all the teachers, and especially to Mr. Heckman, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Cornell, we wish to express our thanks for the patient advice and guidance we all received from them.

Now that we are about to leave high school and the years we have spent together. One may go one way, another another way, but high school memories will never be erased.

The Class Prophecy

Time — May 30, 1959

Place — Cleveland City Hospital, Cleveland, Ohio.

Milly and Betty are supervisor and assistant supervisor of the Emergency Department at Cleveland Hospital. They have just admitted a patient. The patient is none other than:

Milly — Why, Jewel, will wonders never cease! Betty! Look who has come. Jewel and Scott. Whatever happened to you? We can fix that arm in a jiffy. Scott can go into the waiting room while we admit you and fix your room. That reminds me, you may use the new room which has just been remodeled by Jim Eisenhower. He got a promotion the other day and now is the superintendent of a huge construction firm.

Betty — Well Scott, how has life been serving you? What brings you to Cleveland anyway? The last time I saw you was at that baseball game, in about '56 when Louie was pitching. Wasn't that a superb game?

Milly — Talking about baseball, did you know Pat is short stop on the Cleveland Indians team? Well, Scott, it certainly is nice seeing you and we'll see you at visiting hours again this evening.

Betty — Come on, Milly, let's go up with Jewel. We can stop on 3rd and get Dorothy too. If they aren't performing an operation I'm sure she'll run up with us for a few minutes. Jewel will be happy to see her. Dorothy has been so busy since that new class of nurses came in; makes an excellent teacher. Her interest is so great in all her pupils.

Milly — Did you read the American Medical Journal last month? Tillie is earning herself quite a place in the medical world. She is in charge of Pediatrics at Mercy Hospital in Akron. She worked a twenty-four hour shift for two days.

Betty — I heard they were terribly short of nurses there. I got a letter from Peg yesterday. She is Heber's private secretary. He is editor of "The Advocate," his small town paper. It consists of five pages I believe. Joyce is doing secretarial work too.

Milly — I suppose she is doing well. I remember she was about the fastest typist in our class. Golly, we used to have a circus in our typing class, didn't we?

Betty — What became of Pauline? She was in that class too, wasn't she?

Milly — Yes, I was reading a couple of weeks ago in the Leader about her. She won a case for some Pemberville people. She is an extremely brilliant lawyer. I cut the piece out. You may read it tonight.

Betty — Where is Daniel now? I know he and George have been graduated from the seminary at Capital.

Milly — Oh, I forgot to tell you, Betty. I planned on having George address our graduating class this spring. What do you think of it?

Betty — That would be fine! I suppose we will have to arrange the program. Why don't we have Bonnie do a number? She is on vacation now. After vacation she is going to Pasadena to take a couple of more years of schooling I think. It was wonderful to hear her voice over the radio Monday night, wasn't it?

Milly — Yes, she really did justice to "Ave Maiea." Maybe she could bring Martha with her. We could have a little party, hm? Marty always made things lively, didn't she? Good old Marty! Golly it seems good to be making plans for a party with some of our class.

Betty — I suppose it would be impossible for everyone in the class to come. Remember how Hank used to take all us kids in his truck?

Milly — He has a big 200 acre farm. Tom Bockbrader is a farmer too. He has a little implement business also; deals exclusively with John Deere equipment.

Betty — Oh, Milly, could you imagine Doey a farmer's wife?

Milly — My, but our class has the hay makers, doesn't it? Paul is quite content in a very cute little ranch style bungalow on his farm. He is experimenting with corn; making DeKalb 939 look sick. I remember how interested he was in that chapter in Sociology in cross-breeding plants. Now I understand!

Milly — Say, talking about experimenting, Elmer has been raising some rare coon dogs. He is president of the Coon Hunters' Association in Wood County.

Betty — Oh, yes, I read in the Leader that he won first prize with one of his dogs on line and third prize on tree.

Milly — Glen Jurgens always went coon hunting too, didn't he? I wonder where he is. Have you heard?

Betty — Yes, he joined the Navy. John always talked about joining the armed forces, too.

Milly — John is teaching las and foreign languages in Columbia University. Bill is in the army. He is a staff sergeant.

Betty — You know, we have talked about almost all our class. Where is Ruth? Barbara makes a cute little nurse, doesn't she?

Milly — She certainly does. A couple lears ago when she was a delegate from Women's and Children's Hospital in Cincinnati to that conference we had she said Ruth was doing bookkeeping and secretarial work for the Athletic Association in Columbus.

Betty — Oh, Milly, I forgot to tell you, Tom Sigler is president of that association.

Milly — Really! Oh, hasn't this talk been wonderful! I can hardly wait until our next class reunion this fall.

Class Poem of '49

THE YEARS WE'VE SPENT WITH YOU HAVE PASSED.

THOUGH THEIR MEMORIES LINGER ON,
THE SUNSET OF SCHOOL LIFE HAS COME,
FOR US, A NEW DAY DAWNS.

OUR EAGER, STUMBLING FEET MUST TREAD

STRANGE PATHWAYS DAY BY DAY,
NEW TRIALS, TRIBULATIONS, COME,
NEW STORMS SHALL CLOUD OUR WAY.

THE GUIDING HANDS THAT HELPED US
HERE

ARE GONE; WE FACE THE WORLD ALONE;
WE PLACE OUR FAITH, OUR TRUST IN HIM
TO WHOM ALL DESTINIES ARE KNOWN.

SLOWLY, REGRETFULLY, WE LEAVE
THESE OLD FAMILIAR ROOMS, THESE HALLS,

AND GO TO ANSWER, AS BEST WE CAN
THE VOICE OF THE WORLD THAT CALLS.

During the course of the year we had charge of a chapel program and took part in the interclass tournament. We had several class parties which were enjoyed by all.

We honored the Seniors at the Junior-Senior Prom on the 6th of May.

We the class of "50" hope that as Seniors next year, we can occupy the place left to us by the class of "49" as well as they.

Penelope Craven, a charming widow of a little over forty is expecting Paul Ames, a wealthy business man to propose. At the last minute she gets a wire from Ned Innes announcing he is calling on her to discuss the revival of a play Penelope had starred in when she was younger, but the part called for an eighteen year old girl.

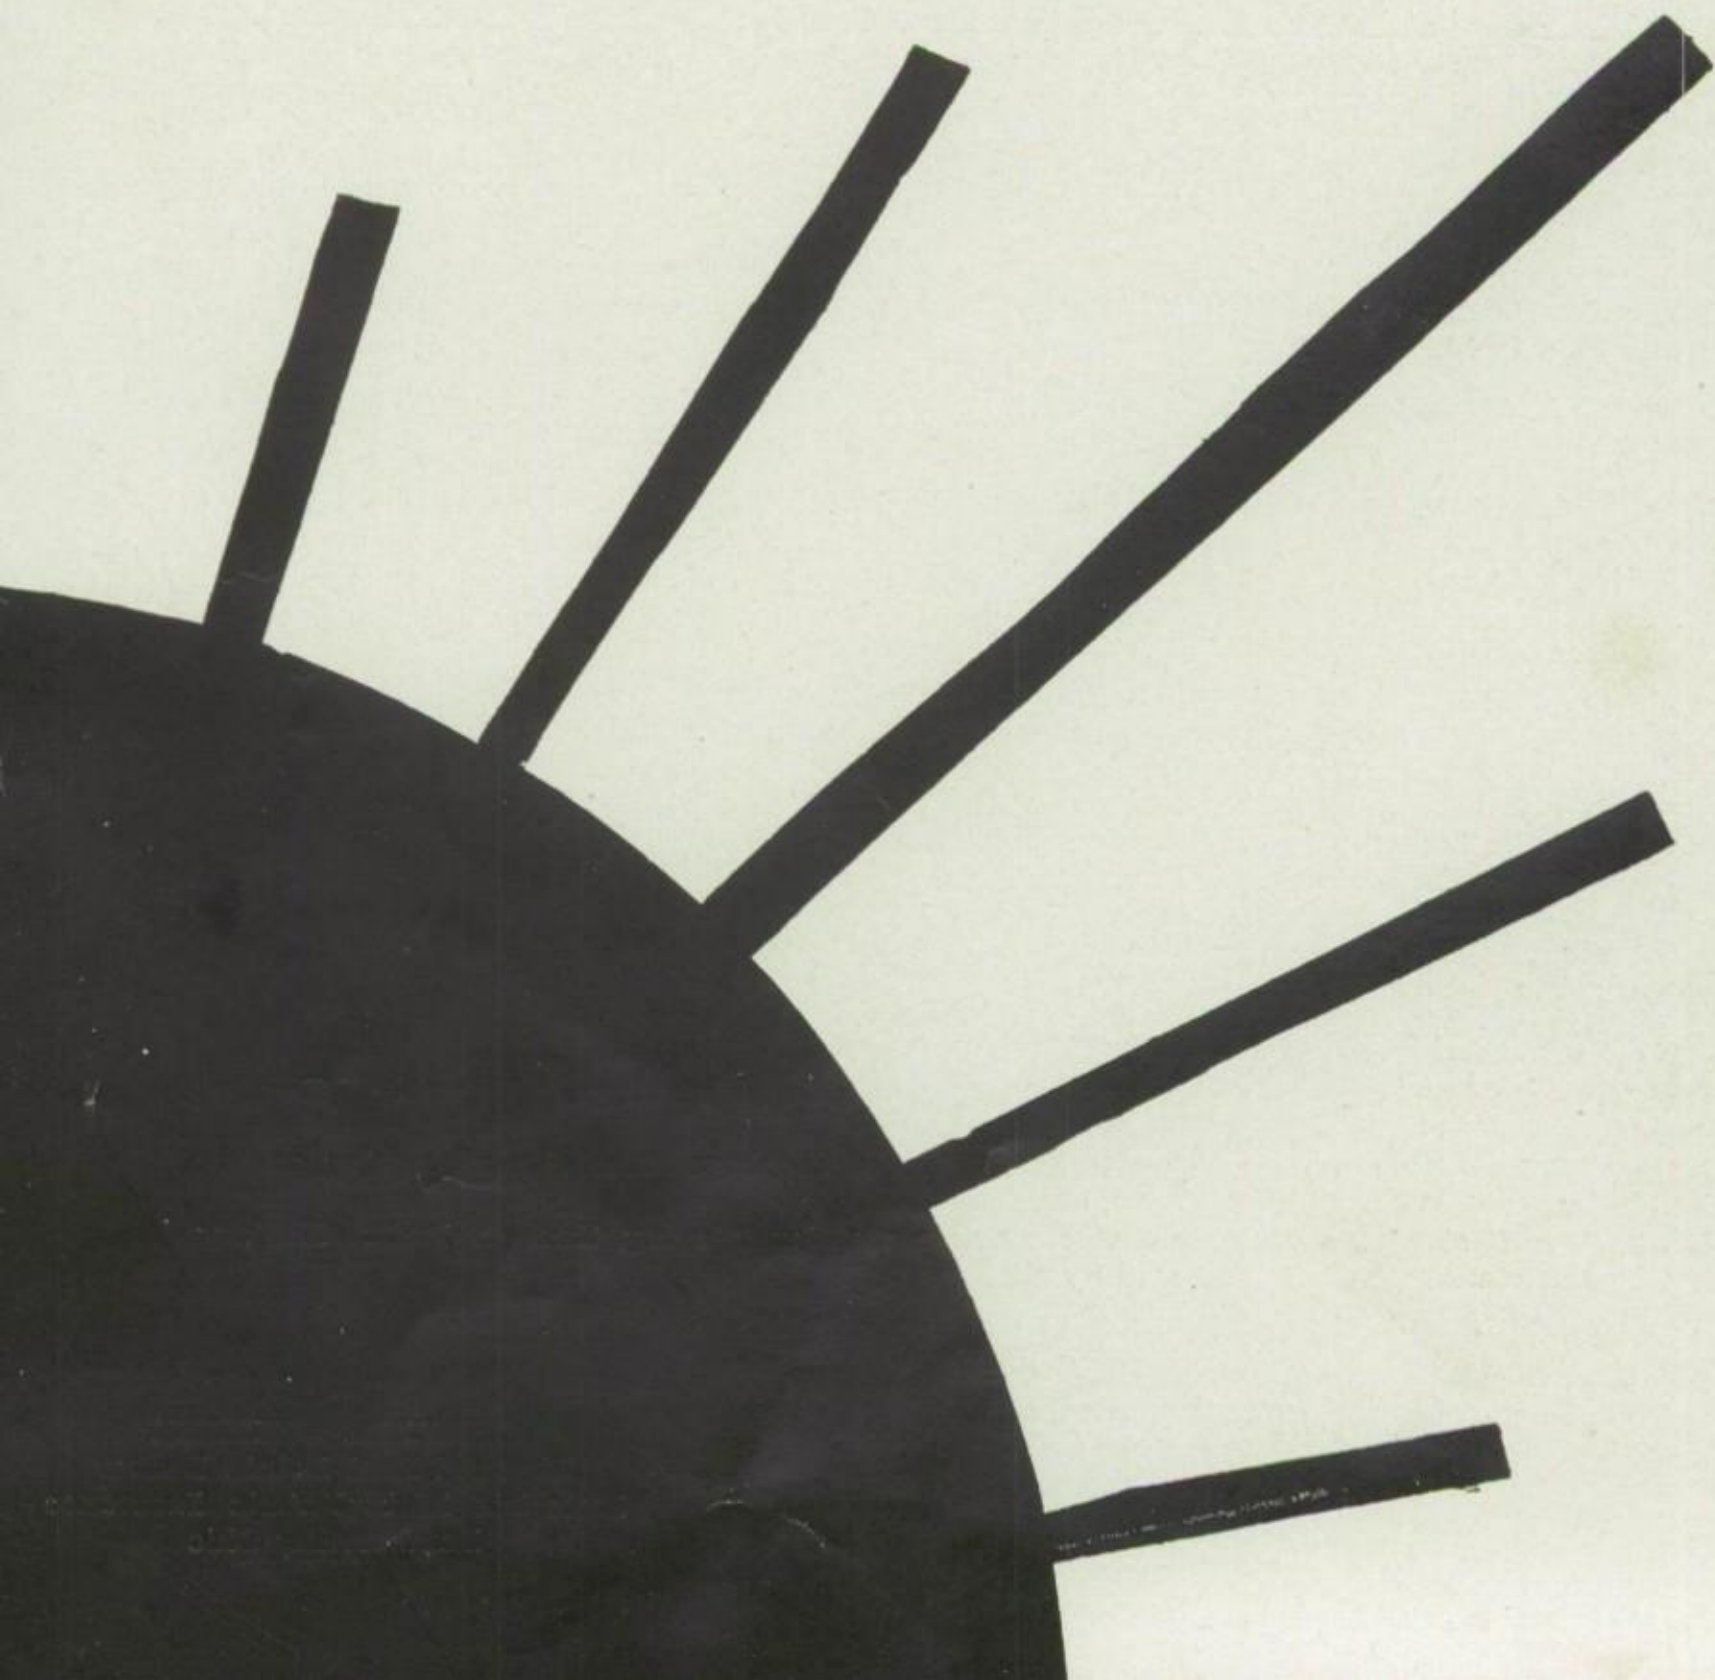

Mr. Innes' purpose was really to get money to finance the show. When he saw Marion, one of Penelope Craven's daughters, he knew she would be just right for the part. Though Penelope Craven was not rich herself her marriage to Paul Ames enabled her to appropriate funds for the production.

GRADE NEWS

Around Thanksgiving the First grade treated their mothers to a tea.

The First grade once again filled Easter baskets for the Children's home in Bowling Green.

Each grade participated in the buying of Easter Seals to help the Crippled Children.

The Second grade entertained their mothers around Thanksgiving.

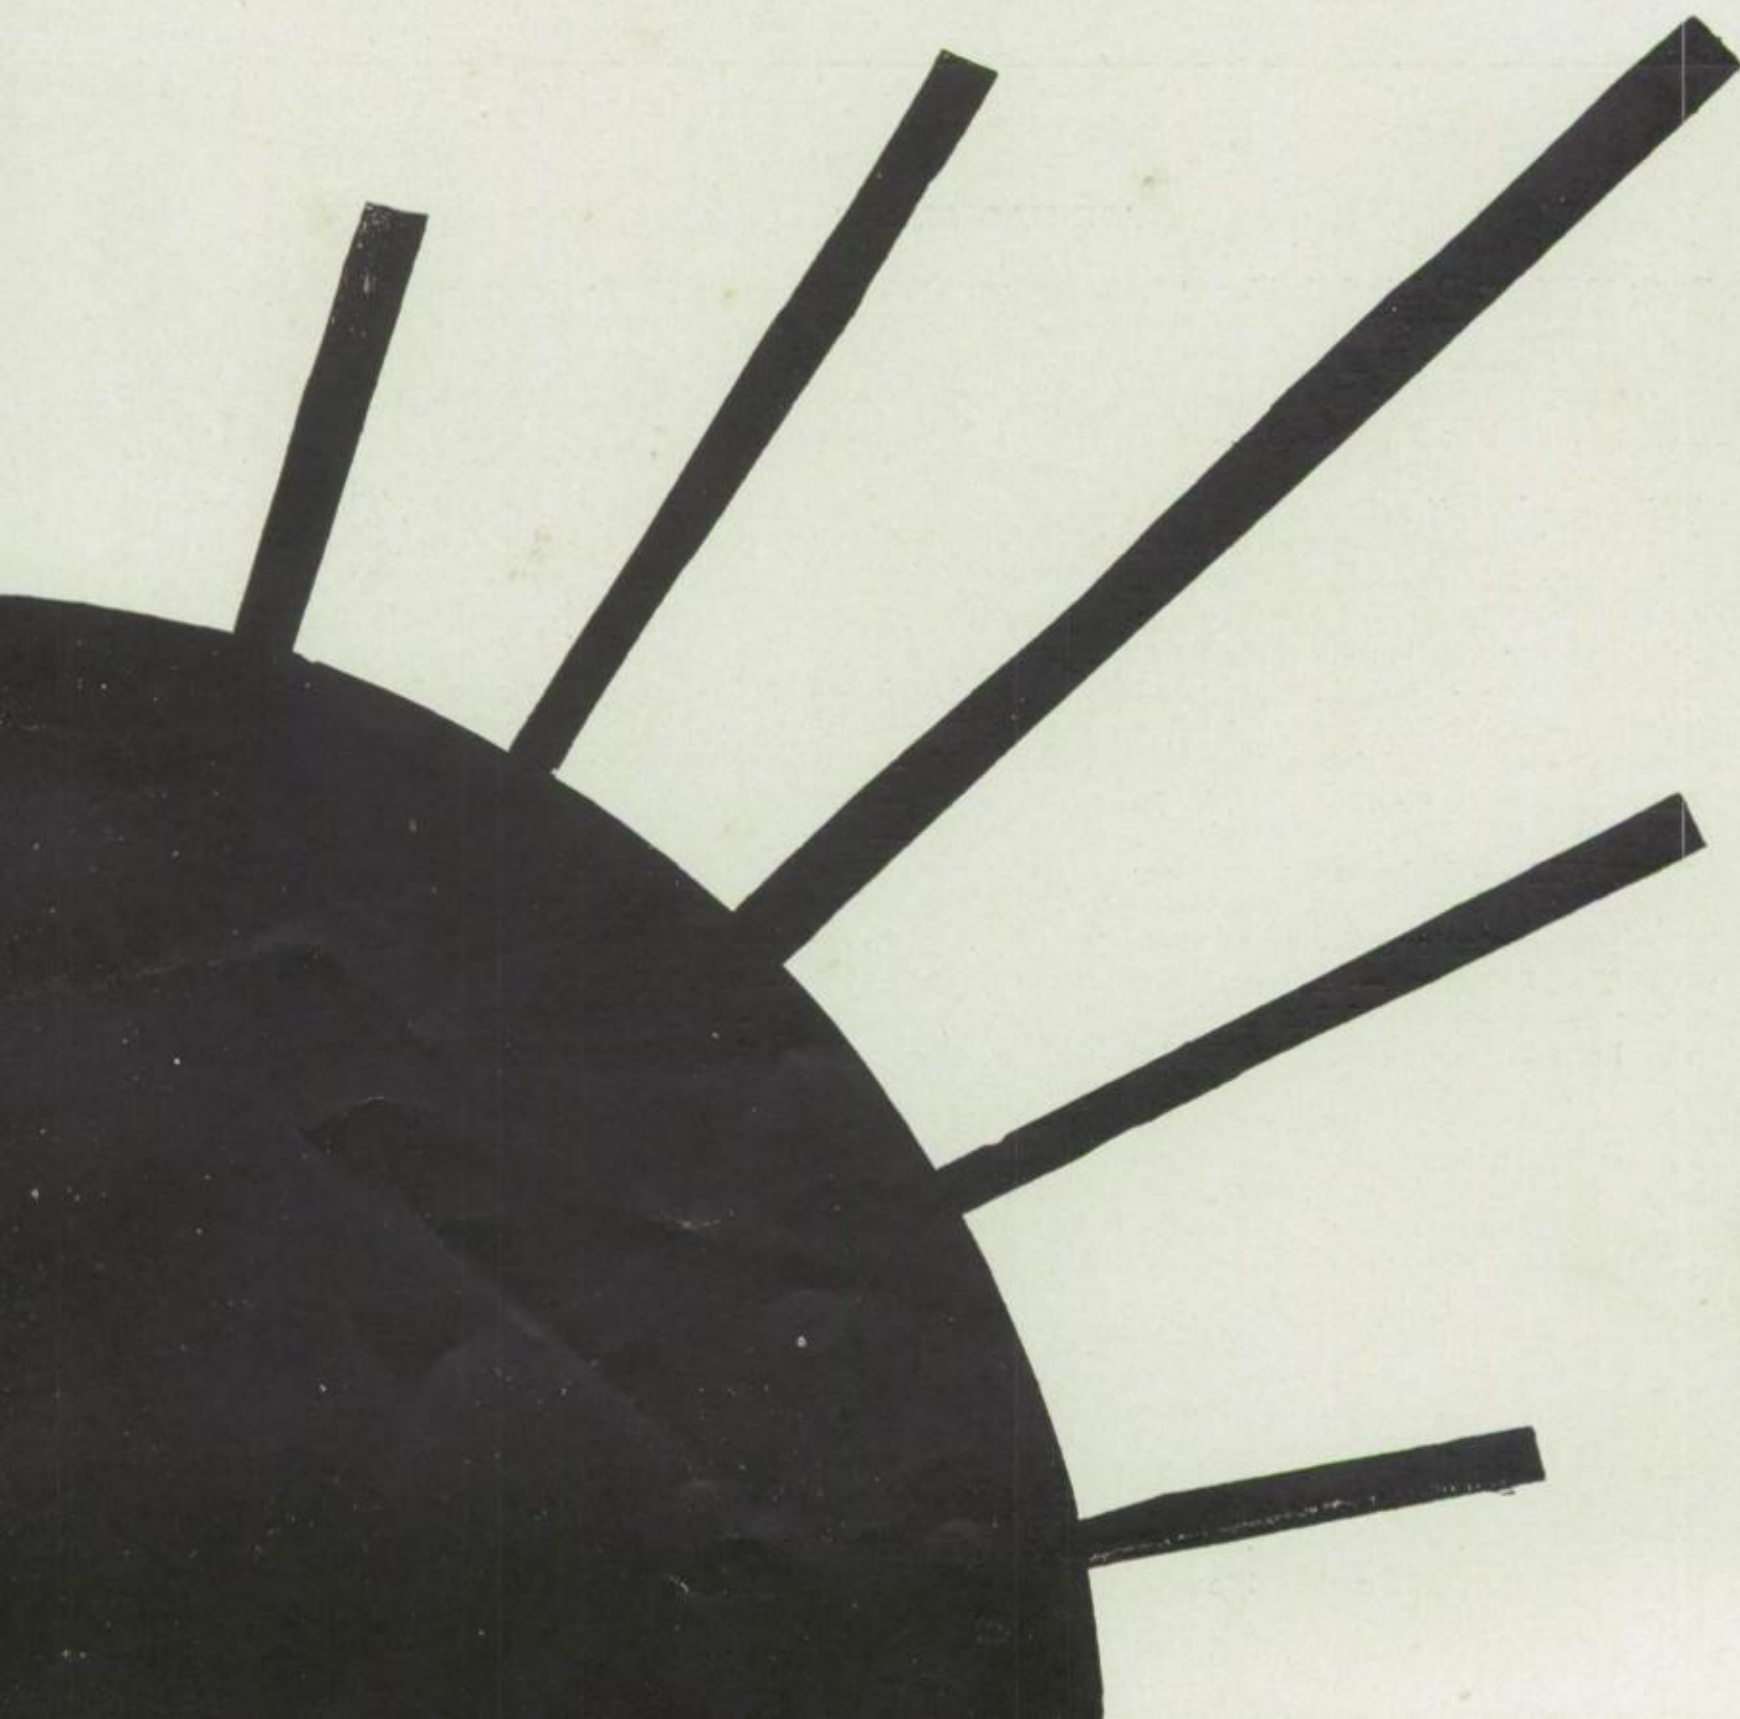

The Third graders this year constructed a manger with life size characters, which they put in the hall for everyone to enjoy. Then before the Christmas vacation, they entertained their mothers.

All of the grades again participated in the Annual Christmas program. The First, Second, and Third grades presented plays and the Fourth Fifth and Sixth grades favored us with several musical numbers. The grades filled Junior Red Cross boxes and sent them overseas. The Sixth grade has received two letters from people in Finland who received their boxes.

Mrs. Ward again organized the Audubon Club. Pemberville School has one of the largest Audubon Clubs in the state of Ohio. We all appreciate the time and effort Mrs. Ward has given us.

Tickets for a play, Light Eternal, for the Junior play, and for a Minstrel show sponsored by the Band mothers were sold by the grades.

ANNUAL SPORTS

BASEBALL

Friday, September 17, at Olney, we played our first baseball game of the season. Our lead-off man, Louie Hiser, smashed out a triple the first thing, and from then on first one team and then another held the lead. Finally in the closing minutes of the game Lady Luck tipped the scale slightly in Olney's favor, and with the final out the score stood 6 to 5, Olney's favor.

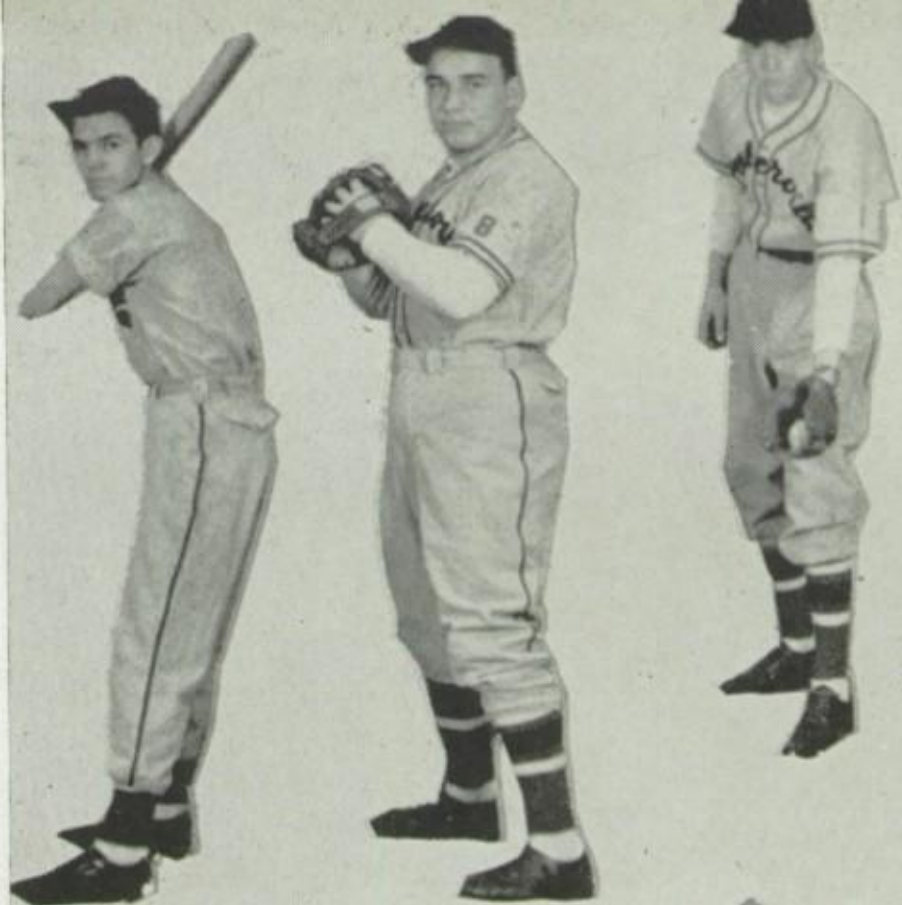

September 24, we played Webster on their hunting grounds and came off without our scalps. We started the game with a boom as we snatched up two runs in the first inning, but from then on our offensive efforts seemed to bog down, and we were held scoreless for the rest of the game. Webster matched our two runs in the first inning with two of their own and then proceeded to score two runs in the second inning, one run in the fourth inning, one run in the fifth inning, and one run in the sixth inning to make the final score 7 to 2, Webster's favor.

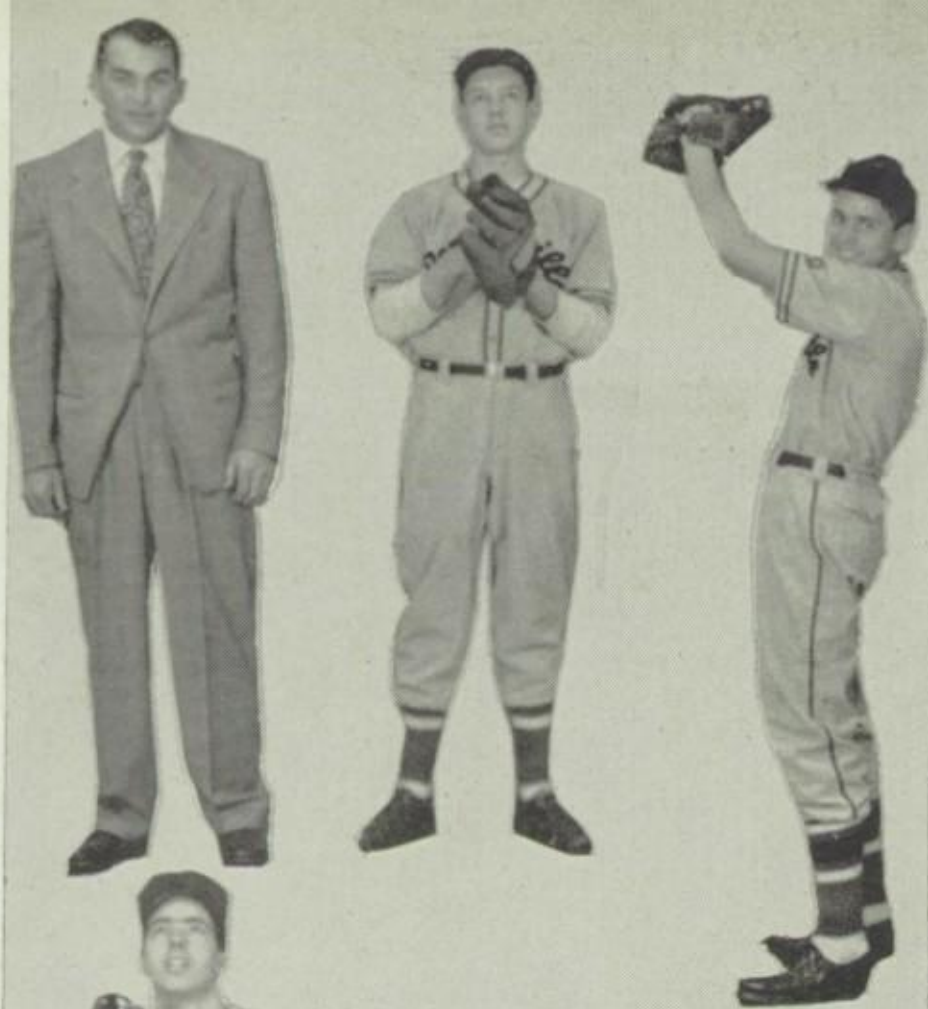

On September 27, we played Woodville. Once again we started off with a bang, this time by hitting in two runs in the third inning before our rivals could wake up. But the force of Pemberville's offensive efforts snapped Woodville out of its trance, and with a man on base they slapped out two home runs in a row to make the score 3 to 2 in Woodville's favor. Then in the fifth inning they grabbed two more runs and put the game on ice. Final score, 5 to 2, Woodville's favor.

On October 2, we played our first and last Wood County Tournament game. It was with Troy-Lucky. Because the City Park baseball diamond at Bowling Green was flooded by rain, we were forced to play Luckey on our own diamond. But the Trojans seemed undismayed and proved it by slamming out three runs in the first inning, four in the third, three in the fourth, and one in the fifth. Pemberville rallied in the fifth inning to get its one and only run. Final score, 11 to 1, Luckey's favor.

TOURNAMENT GAMES

For the first game of the Wood County Tournament, Pemberville drew Bloomdale. Our boys got off to a fast start and by the first quarter we were ahead 12-6. During the second quarter the Red Men kept up the good work and at the end of the quarter were ahead 21 to 9. With the third frame Bloomdale started to close in on the Redmen. Third quarter, 29-20. In the final quarter after staggging off a Bloomdale rally the Redmen came ahead, 44 to 31. Tom Sigler was high man with 12 points.

The second game of the tournament was with Portage. We looked very bad as we were behind in the first quarter 7-5. Rest of the game was just as bad as the score by quarters was: half, 19-10; third quarter 25-15; and 27-19 at the end of the game. This ended the season for us but we are hoping for a better season next year.

Paul's barn burned down and the agent for the insurance company, explaining the policy that covered the barn told him that his firm would build another barn of similar size instead of paying him cash. Paul was furious. "If that's the way your company does business" he exploded, "you can cancel the insurance policy on my wife."

Mr. Palmer: I think I'll propose my wife for a Congresswoman.

Mr. Thompson: Why?

Mr. Palmer: Because she's so good at introducing bills into the house.

Mr. Heckman: When do the leaves begin to turn?

Dick Beeker: The night before exams.

On getting a letter from Milly, a student nurse, her mother was badly upset.

I don't understand it, she moaned. We send our daughter a good allowance and yet she writes home that she has had to do a lot of pan handling this week.

Employer to newly employed stenographer: Now I hope you understand the importance of punctuation?

Jewel: Oh yes indeed I always get to work on time.

Agent: Now that you are married and have a wife, you'll want to take out some insurance.

Heber H.: Insurance? Shucks no. She ain't the least bit dangerous.
